ONLINE BOOK DISCUSSION

Summer of '69 by Elin Hilderbrand

Thursday, August 19

Time: 6:30–7:45 p.m.

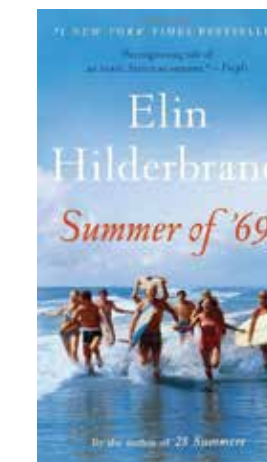

Cost: FREE

Reservation Required:

E-mail ehmprograms@elmhurst.org

More Information:

elmhursthistory.org/320/Programs

Participants will read and discuss Elin Hilderbrand's popular novel that takes place as Apollo 11 prepares for the first moon landing. The Levin family's four siblings, who typically spend summer at their grandmother's historic Nantucket home, find that nothing is the same in the summer of 1969. This novel transports the reader back to an eventful year, when everything changed for them and the country. Presented with Elmhurst Public Library. Discussion takes place via Zoom, and link will be supplied to registered participants.
